

Ann Rudorf

Ann Rudorf is a local Pacifica resident with over 20 years experience in the food world. From running a private dining room at a prominent San Francisco bank for many years to her role as Executive Chef for the Perfect Palate Catering Company, Ann has accrued a broad range of cooking and event planning expertise. She is currently the private chef for a San Francisco family, caterer for myriad private clients throughout the Bay Area, and a contract chef for Wood Stone Corporation, demonstrating their residential line of stone hearth ovens. Ann is married, has a daughter who attends Cabrillo School, and is active on the board of the Spindrift School of Performing Arts.